

Australian Coalition '99

A not-for-profit coalition of non-government, business and community organisations promoting the United Nations International Year of Older Persons 1999

Contents

A message from the Governor-General	1
A message from the Minister	2
The Chair's address	3
Executive summary	5
Background	8
United Nations principles for older persons • Naming of the Year The non-government approach to IYOP
Achievements	10
Successful community outcomes • The partnership concept Effective processes employed • Key outcome areas assisted by the grant from the Commonwealth of Australia • Communication and coordination • Media and marketing Business and community partnerships • Case study: The Body Shop's body image and ageing campaign • New opportunities and direction beyond 1999
Sustainability – The future impact of IYOP	20
Conferences/congresses/festivals/weeks/days/open days Policy and position papers and statements • Research programs and projects Awards and recognition ceremonies • Educational programs • Art and media projects Advertising • Cosmetic and health care products • Other partnerships International partnerships • Maintaining awareness
The origins of Australian Coalition '99	24
AC '99 Mission Statement • National Coordinating Committee AC '99 and States/Territories • AC '99 and the Commonwealth Government of Australia International relations • AC '99 organisational structure • AC '99 National Secretariat
Funding of the AC '99 project	30
AC '99 – The network of national organisations	31
A snapshot of AC '99 national partner achievements	33
Australian Senior Newspaper • Commonwealth Bank • Guides Australia National Ageing Research Institute • National Seniors Association • Nutrition Australia Outward Bound Australia • Rural Ageing And Lifestyle Group, Charles Sturt University SBS Radio • The Royal Australian And New Zealand College Of Psychiatrists
An IYOP review from the States and Territories	37
South Australia • Western Australia • Victoria • Tasmania • Australian Capital Territory New South Wales • Queensland • Northern Territory
Resources	45
Thanks	46