School Council Meeting

Good Bye to Megan

As I explained in last week's newsletter, there will be a change of teachers in our Prep class from the beginning of Term Two. The current teacher, Megan Cox, will be taking leave for the rest of the year and she will be replaced by Joan Newbold. Joan has been working at Carlton PS this year, so is familiar with all of the Prep students as well as many parents. Megan is in her fifth year at Carlton and has worked as a class teacher and a PE specialist. I know I speak on behalf of her colleagues, parents and the students when I say we will all miss you Megan and wish you the very best for the rest of 2009.

Uniform

It is great to see so many students wearing school uniform. At the School Council meeting on March 16th, a motion was passed to strongly encourage the wearing of school uniform by students at Carlton PS. School Council believes that as well as being reasonably priced for families, that wearing a uniform gives children a sense of pride. The School Council especially encourages the wearing of school uniforms when children are representing the school at excursions, special activities and sporting events.

What are you reading?

Name: Osman

Grade: 2/3 Ellie

Book: The Wolves in the Walls written by Neil Gaiman and illustrated by Dave McKean

Why should other people read this book?

"Because it is a really good book. It has really interesting pictures and the pictures help you understand the story. They help me to get good pictures in my head. "

Congratulations to all students who have worked really hard this term. On the back of this week's newsletter are just a few examples of the different types of writing that students have been doing.

A reminder that school will finish at 2.15pm tomorrow.

I hope that all families have a great holiday,

Regards

Julie Large
