

2007 GENEALOGIES

At The "Old School" Wednesday 12th December 2006, at 8.00pm

Maximum Pedigree Range Award - Most time between earliest & latest births of the great grandparents of oneself or an ancestor. (calculations to be made and documented on entry. Proof of the two significant birth/baptism dates should be included.)

Minimum Pedigree Range Award - Least time between earliest & latest births of the great grandparents of oneself or an ancestor. (as above, please note that the pedigree range must be complete for this entry.)

Singular Devotion Dialogue Award - For the most interesting profile of an ancestor who only had one marriage. (not to exceed one page, a photo may be included. Previous profile-winning subjects are ineligible.)

Silver Anniversary Award - For the most silver anniversaries celebrated in a 6 generation pedigree of oneself or an ancestor. (Can include subject's anniversaries, maximum score would be 32. All ancestors should be named, and entrants should include the number of silver anniversaries on their entry. Only include those ancestors, where marriage date and both death dates for couples are known, living subjects excluded from this requirement.)

Box Brownie Award- For the best display of family photos (Previous prize-winning entries are ineligible.)

Newshound Award - For the most interesting newspaper article which-mentions a direct ancestor, name and date of paper should be included. (Previous winning Newshound entries ineligible)

Hospital Happenings Award - For the most interesting document generated by a hospital, which mentions an ancestor. (Previous prize-winning documents, ineligible)

Victorian Voters Award -For the birth, marriage or death, of an ancestor, in Victoria closest to 24 November 1857, when manhood suffrage was granted for Victoria in the Lower House elections 150 Years ago. (Calculations should be made and recorded by entrant)

Heirloom Award - For the most interesting item owned by- an ancestor (Previous prize-winning entries are ineligible)

Magna Carta Award - For the most interesting certificate or document relating to an ancestor. (Previous prize-winning entries are ineligible.)