

NATION BUILDERS

Great Lives and Stories from St Kilda General Cemetery

by

Meyer Eidelson

From politicians to poets and prostitutes – the extraordinary characters in this book made important contributions to the evolution of our identity as Australians. Meet Alfred Deakin, three times prime minister of a new nation; Tilly Aston the blind poet; Albert Jacka of Gallipoli fame; Von Mueller the great botanist; Madame Brussels the brothel owner and many others.

This illustrated book runs to 120 pages and includes a coloured map of the cemetery.
