EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Grains Innovation Park's 50th anniversary

Grains Innovation Park, Horsham, will mark a milestone in 2018 when celebrates its 50th anniversary.

Over the past 50 years, more than 1200 people who have been employed at Grains Innovation Park, have made a significant contribution to the region, both economically and socially, as well as to the grains industry as a whole.

The Horsham Historical Society will help curate and archive some of GIP's history in a publication set to be released in 2019. To be advised when this book will be available complete the information below.
