Naming Traditions

Our ancestors often used the following naming procedure when picking out a name for a new child.

This explains why certain names are VERY common in a given family line. Watching for these patterns can help in your genealogy research.

1st son = father's father

2nd son = mother's father

3rd son = father

4th son = father's oldest brother

5th son = father's 2nd oldest brother or mother's oldest brother

1st dau = mother's mother

2nd dau = father's mother

3rd dau = mother

4th dau = mother's oldest sister

5th dau = mother's 2nd oldest sister or father's oldest sister

What's on and What's been Happening?

On 14th November 2009 the Powerhouse Discovery Centre in Castle Hills, NSW, had an exhibition of bonnets with a hands-on workshop where visitors were encouraged to take part in embroidering a bonnet.

The Exhibition at the Hawkesbury Regional Art Gallery and the 'Blessing of the Bonnets' ceremony at St. Matthews Church, Windsor, was the main NSW event for 2009.

In August 2010 Christina will go overseas with the bonnets to the Festival of Quilts in Birmingham. Following on from that a major event is planned in Cork, Ireland and then on to the Channel Isles of Jersey and Guernsey for exhibitions and 'Blessing of the Bonnets' ceremonies.
On return planning is underway for a major event in Qld.

In April 2010 'Roses from the Heart' will be part of The 2010 Australasian Quilt Convention & Expo. Dates: April 29th to May 2nd 2010. Place: Royal Exhibition Buildings, Carlton, Victoria.

Help raise funding for this project by purchasing the 'Voices from the Dark' DVD from Christina's web site.

A Cleaning Poem

I asked the lord to tell me
Why my house is such a mess
He asked if I'd been 'computing',
And I had to answer 'yes.'
He told me to get off my butt,
And tidy up the house.
And so I started cleaning up...
The smudges off my mouse.
I wiped and shined the topside.
That really did the trick...

I was just admiring my good work.
I didn't mean to 'click.'
But click, I did, and oops –
I found a real absorbing site

I got SO way into it
I was into it all night.
So nothing's changed except my mouse.
It's as shiny as the sun.
I guess my house will stay a mess.
While I sit here on my _ _ _ .

What a gem, I couldn't resist sharing! ED.

Some years ago I met a lady called Mrs Chambers, she told me her maiden name was Gotobed.
So Miss Gotobed married Mr Chambers!

Three Gotobed's that I like are the questioning, May Gertrude Gotobed, born 1877 and the echoed reply of Gertrude May Gotobed, born 1900 and 1905. Thanks to John Court

IMMIGRATION DEPOSIT JOURNALS 1853-1900 at the GSV.

I have just been shown a wonderful resource which is getting less attention than it deserves. The above is a list of immigrants for whom a deposit was paid to assist them with their passage to New South Wales. Often the sponsors were relatives, so you may find other family members were already here; other sponsors may have been looking to employ the migrants when they arrived.

Information varies but usually includes the name of depositor or sponsor, date of deposit, particulars of the sponsored migrant including name, age, calling and address, name and address of the referee, amount paid towards the cost of passage and outfit, nationality of sponsored migrant, name of ship and date of arrival.

These records are particularly valuable for 1860-62 when the Board's Lists are missing and after 1870 when the Board's Lists no longer supply the place of origin within the county in Ireland. The Journals are on microfilm series A 28, with an index (sequenced by immigrants and by depositors) compiled by Pat Stemp & Aileen Trinder available on microfiche. There is a supplementary index for 1856-7. Accessing the film using the details from the index is easy.

MR HYDENWELL TELL WHY?

It is New Year's Eve 1852 and Henry HYDENWELL sits at his desk by candlelight. He dips his quill pen in ink and begins to write his New Year's resolutions.

1. No man is truly well-educated unless he learns to spell his name at least three different ways within the same document.

I resolve to give the appearance of being extremely well-educated in the coming year.

2. I resolve to see to it that all of my children will have the same names that my ancestors have used for six generations in a row.

3. My age is no one's business but my own. I hereby resolve to never list the same age or birth year twice on any document.

4. I resolve to have each of my children baptized in a different church - either in a different faith or in a different parish. Every third child will not be baptized at all or will be baptized by an itinerant minister who keeps no records.

5. I resolve to move to a new town, new county, or new state at least once every ten years- just before those pesky enumerators come around asking silly questions.

6. I will make every attempt to reside in counties and towns where no vital records are maintained or where the courthouse burns down every few years.

7. I resolve to join an obscure religious cult that does not believe in record keeping or in participating in military service.

8. When the tax collector comes to my door, I'll loan him my pen, which has been dipped in rapidly fading blue ink.

9. I resolve that if my beloved wife Mary should die, I will marry another Mary.

10. I resolve not to make a will. Who needs to spend money on a lawyer?
