AUDITION NOTICE

Auditions for Moreland Theatre Company's 2007 season of one-act plays will be held on Thursday 1 February at St Ambrose Hall, Dawson Street, Brunswick (across from the City Baths), commencing at 8pm.

Auditions are informal and no preparation or prior experience is needed. All welcome - comfortable clothes, a love of live theatre and a willingness to participate are all that's necessary.

The season will include a number of short plays by mainly local writers, and several different directors, and will require actors of both sexes and a range of ages. Performances are scheduled for the final week of March (Thurs-Sat, with possible Sunday matinee) at St Ambrose Hall.

Rehearsals will generally be held on Mondays and Thursdays at 8pm, commencing on Monday 5 February. Other times and venues may be arranged to suit individual directors and cast.

Note: for insurance reasons, if you gain a part in one of our productions you'll be required to become a member of Moreland Theatre Company - this applies to stage crew too. It's only $30 ($15 concession) for the whole year, and entitles you to discounted tickets to all our productions, as well as regular newsletters and a range of other theatrical and social activities. And it's fun!

REMINDER

The Sydney Road Street Party is coming up. It's on Sunday 4 March, and we need volunteers to help run the stall and spread the word to the community about what our local theatre company is doing. Many hands - and voices - make the job easier, and you'll be surrounded by happy people, good food and great music. If you can help, even for an hour, contact Kath (tel 9354 1301/secretary@moreland.org.au).
