Hope you all had a great Christmas and that 2005 is happy indeed

Here are two entries for that new diary.....

Coming up in January:

Karim needs a further nine actors for his May production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream". So, if you see yourself as part of the cast in this Shakespearean comedy of errors & enchantments, gender confusion & mistaken identity, come along to St. Ambrose's Hall, Thurs 13th Jan or Mon 17th Jan. The time is 8 p.m., and St. Ams as always is in Dawson Street, Brunswick (near the Brunswick Library). Karim's contact number is 0412 767 527

Workshop/Playreading is planned on Thurs 20th Jan for Cheryl's new play "Amore". The play is scheduled for production late 2005. "Amore", set in Brunswick over a decade or two, is a comedy. There are 4 females (2 young, 2 older) and 4 males (twenties/thirties) in the play. The Playreading at 8:00 pm is also at St. Ambrose. Cheryl's contact number is 9386 6641

That's it for January, but watch out for next exciting newsletter.....
