Special guest speakers

TIM LANE

Cool, concise, accurate and always interesting, a legend amongst sporting commentators. Tim has covered five Olympic Games ('84 Los Angeles, '88 Seoul, '92 Barcelona, '96 Atlanta and 2000 Sydney), and five Commonwealth Games ('86 Edinburgh, '90 Auckland, '94 Victoria, Canada, '98 Kuala Lumpur and '02 Manchester). Tim is also a veteran football (having called 20 AFL Grand Finals) and international cricket commentator.

NICOLE LIVINGSTONE OAM

A member of the Australian swimming team for 12 consecutive years from 1985 to 1996.

Nicole won ten consecutive 100m backstroke titles between 1987 and 1996. Also won a host of medals at three Olympic Games, three Commonwealth Games and six Pan Pacific Championships.

Now immensely popular as a media presenter.

LOUISE DOBSON OAM

Retired from international hockey in 2005 after having played 230 internationals in a glittering career.

Played in the Athens and Atlanta Olympics and the Manchester and Kuala Lumpur Commonwealth Games and the Champions trophies in 1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003. Olympic (1996) and Commonwealth Games (2002) gold medallist.

SARAH RYAN OAM

Competed in three Olympics, the last being the Athens Games when she was the female team captain, winning gold in the 4x100 freestyle relay. In the 2002 Pan Pacific Games, Sarah led the women's 4x100 freestyle relay in an unforgettable victory over the United States achieving a new Commonwealth Games record. She was a silver medallist in the Atlanta and Sydney Olympic Games and gold medallist in the Kuala Lumpur Commonwealth Games.
