

ROTARY WORLD PEACE FELLOWSHIPS

Applications are invited for Rotary World Peace Fellowships (RWPF). The fellowships are for study at one of the six Rotary Centres for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution to obtain a masters degree in international relations, peace studies, conflict resolution and related areas. The Centres have been established by Rotary in partnership with prestigious universities around the world.

The partner universities are: Duke University/University of North Carolina; International Christian University, Tokyo; Universidad del Salvador, Buenos Aires; University of Bradford, UK; University of Queensland and University of California, Berkeley.

Rotary World Peace Fellowships are very generous, upwards of $US60,000, and are for up to 2 years, providing funding for round trip travel; tuition and fees; room and board; and other limited expenses including an applied field experience.

Applicants should have:

- Undergraduate degree with strong grades
- Training, academic background and work experience in a relevant field required for a masters program
- A minimum of 3 years combined paid or unpaid full time experience in a relevant field
- Proficiency in more than one language
- Excellent leadership skills
- A demonstrated commitment to peace and international understanding through their professional and academic achievements and/or personal and community service activities.

Applications must be made through a Rotary Club by 15 May 2007 for studies commencing after July 1, 2008. Experience shows that effective applications require careful thought and time to complete.

Brochures and application forms are available at
