

WILL THEY EVER LISTEN?

Parkside Gardens, a grand place for all

To walk and relax in while children chase a ball

With birds, trees, bushes and plants evergreen

Surrounded by water cool and serene

But, a noble clan Shepps gift from Mars Six ordinary councillors, who think they are stars

Are hell bent on destroying that what is ours

To build houses where there should only be flowers

So to that six a chance for you all to learn

By listening to your community and hearing their concern

Stand up and be counted, be brave and be strong

And correct your decision which is horribly wrong

For Parkside Gardens can be a place of beauty

If you only listen to all of us and do your
