WEEKLY BULLETIN OF THE ROTARY CLUB OF SALE.

16th January 2006

Chair: Alan Lewis

PRESIDENT'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

- President Alan informed the Club that Colin Sheumack, Bishop of Gippsland from 1987 to 1994 and former member of the RC of Sale, passed away on 5 January. A Memorial Eucharist will be held in St Paul's Cathedral on Thursday January 19 at 10am.
- Wellington Council has called for a public meeting to be held on Tuesday 24 Jan in relation to the re-opening of the Swing Bridge later next month.
- At short notice President Alan has organised Australia Day activities as detailed in the letter below.
- There is a Board meeting on Wednesday night at Alan's place.
- Laurie spoke about the Giving Tree and indicated that collection boxes had been distributed to ABC offices throughout the 3GI listening area. A wide range of gifts were collected, a sample of which Laurie displayed, and their distribution was organised by Pat Bourke who sent a letter of appreciation to the Club for the continuing support Rotary gives to this community appeal. President Alan thanked Laurie on behalf of the Club for his efforts.
- Next Monday's meeting is at the Seaspray Surf Life Saving Club
- We are still awaiting news from the Council about the Heritage Trail
- Sale is the only Club not represented at the District Conference.
- Keith indicated that there will be another working bee at Ashleigh House probably on 20th March.
- David C. informed the Club that benches for use in the sensory garden at the Sale Specialty School are being made
- Keith's and Don's sons are being married next week, one on a cricket pitch and the other in Puffing Billy.

Sergeant at Arms: Alan Lewis

- Tonight was the night Alan set out to show he is not just a President but also a mean Sergeant starting by fining Noel for purchasing yet another new Ford.
- Laurie's photo in the Gippsland Times had not escaped Alan's attention and as a consequence Laurie contributed to the sergeant's fine box.
- Graeme paid up because he could not attend the Board meeting with Alan.
- Adrian coughed up for failing to issue last week's Bulletin.
- Col was fined because he did not bring Emu along.
- David C was not there when Alan needed him and paid up for this negligence.
- David T did not exercise his influence at the races so that Alan would win and was fined as a result.
- Leo found that holidaying at the expense of his in-laws is not as cheap as he thought as he was also asked to pay a fine.
- For Grant, as an aircraft controller, everything goes over his head but he did not escape a fine from Alan.
- Others to be fined were Keith, Rod, Bob, Rossy and Alan himself was fined from the floor by David C.

Flag Raising arranged by WO Neville Gibbons

Having regard to location of power supply and flag poles for the event we would like to close Desailly Street at Canal Road (South Side) and McMillan at Raymond Street (West Side), Rotary can collect barriers from pre arranged location (we have truck and labour) and install and remove on day also clarification is required how to access power and flag poles (special key required). Could you also advise on the availability of a dais, lectern, sound system and tent? I will contact you on Friday 20th January to finalise arrangements

Yours faithfully

Alan Lewis
President
