Monday Report Monday 7th September First time Chairman Sharyn welcomed the fifteen

Rotarians present visiting Rotarian Beverley McFarlane, exchange student Ina and guest speaker Valmai Todd a teacher from Sale College to talk on the subject of Hands on Learning. Rotarian Keith advised Rotarians that the Sale Show was on Friday 30th and Saturday 31st October and that our Club and Sale Central would be manning the gates; a preliminary roster is attached to the Bulletin Rotarians please let Keith know if the nominated time is unsuitable.

Sharyn in introducing Valmai noted that she was a teacher of over thirty years experience and was the co-ordinator of the Hands on Learning program at Sale College. The program originated in Queensland and provides flexible education solutions for year 7-10 students struggling with mainstream schooling. Students are involved in creative building projects onsite at school. The Program at Sale College is run for two days a week and is supported by local business (cont page 2)

Just For Fun

Contributed by David T
Blonde new to neighborhood door-knocked seeking odd jobs.

Neighbor employed her to paint his house's external porch, asking her to apply two coats.

Finished the job, knocked on the door, and householder was surprised to find her standing there with half the can of paint remaining.

"Oh, by the way," she said "it's not a porch, it's a Lexus".
