Special Lecture

"City of Launceston"

An evening presentation by maritime archaeologists of Heritage Victoria's MHU on the work and protection of the City of Launceston. Slides and information will provide a "virtual" dive of the fragile wreck and describe the general conservation work being carried out on recovered relics.

Come and hear why protection and study of shipwrecked vessels like the City of Launceston are important for our maritime heritage.

Open to the public

Wednesday 6 June, 2001
7.30pm – 9.30pm

Auditorium
RMIT Storey Hall
Swanston St, Melbourne

Admission: $5.00 at the door
